CENTRAL DAVIDSON SENIOR HIGH

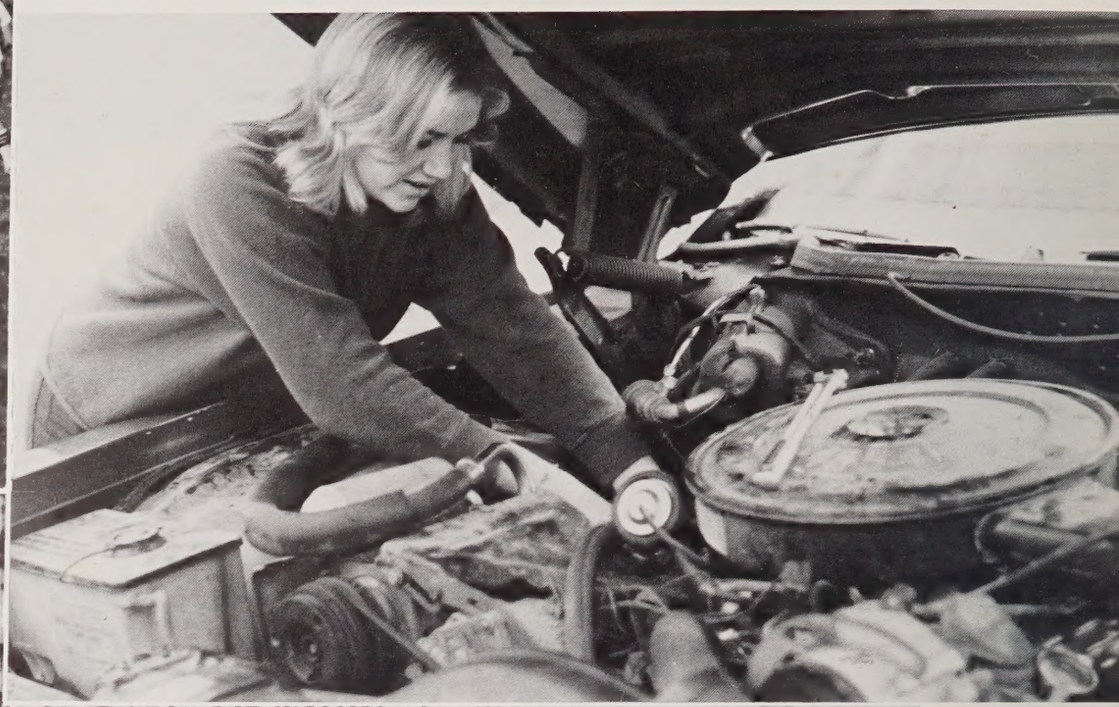
1975

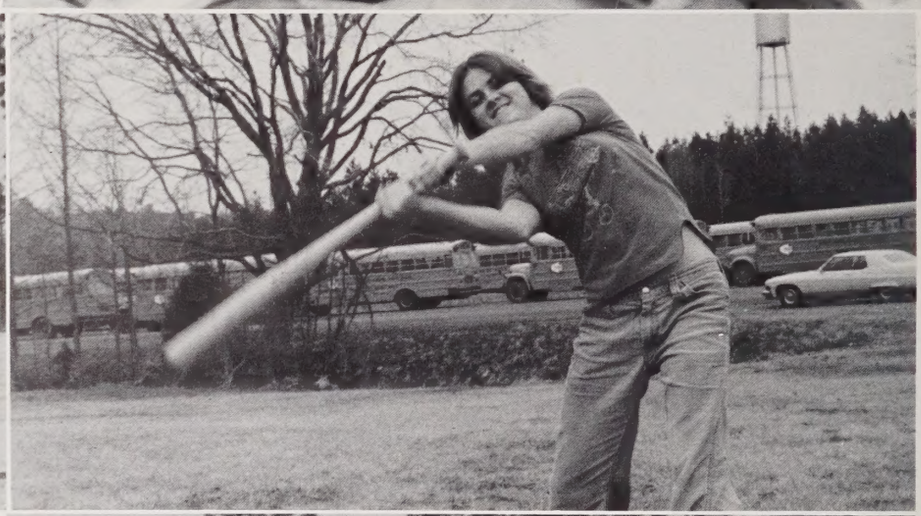
VOLUME XVIII

LEXINGTON

NORTH CAROLINA

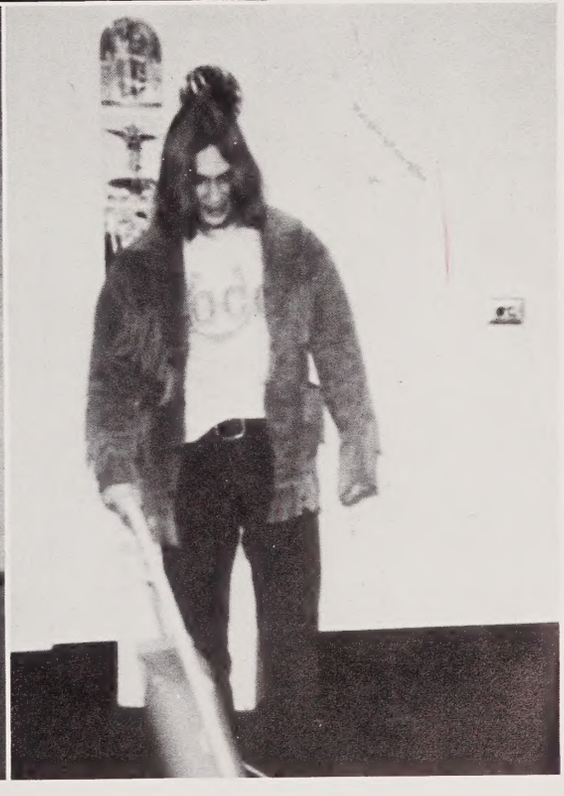
I AM WOMAN —





Women's Lib? Male
Chauvinism?
Sex discrimination?
Girls in auto mechanics —
boys in Family Life!
Equal pay for equal work . . .
Equality for all people!

HEAR ME ROAR!



THE SPARTAN WAY OF LIFE

Last year the senior graduation announcements and the graduation program pictured the new and official seal of Central Senior High. The Spartan Helmet at the top of the seal signifies the school mascot. The Spartan man and woman represent the co-educational school. Between them they hold a shield divided into four sections. Each section signifies some part of school life. The top portion signifies the educational program, the right portion represents the fine arts, the winged foot represents athletics, and the left portion represents the vocational program. We hope this seal will be a traditional symbol of which all Spartans will be very proud.

Music is the universal language and love is the key
To brotherhood and peace and understanding, to livin' in harmony
So take your brother by the hand and sing along with me . . .
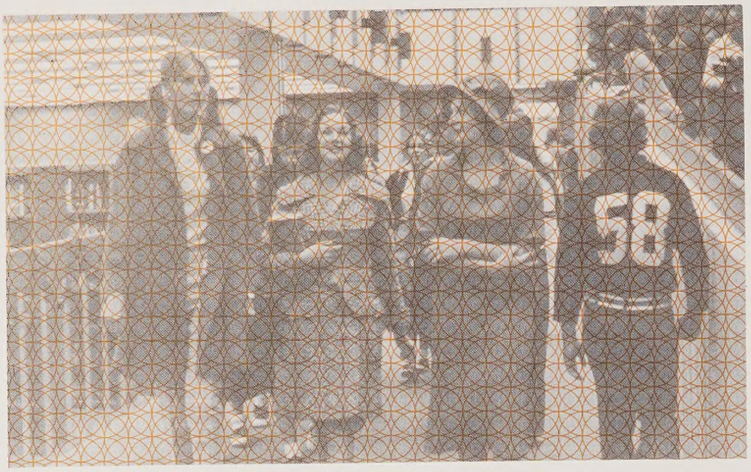
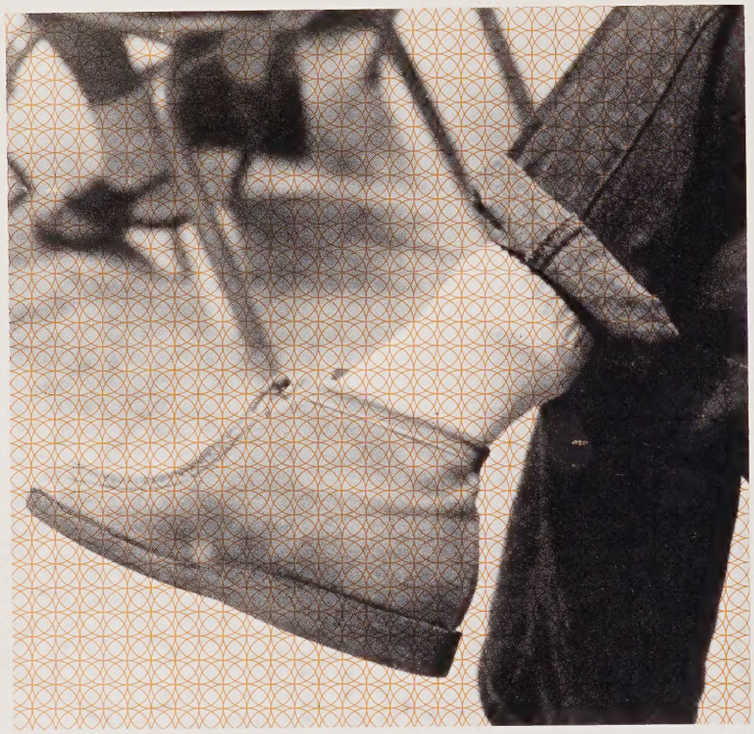
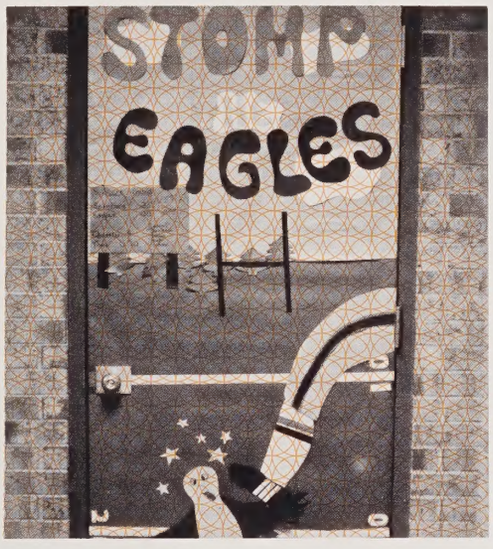
I believe in music
I believe in love.

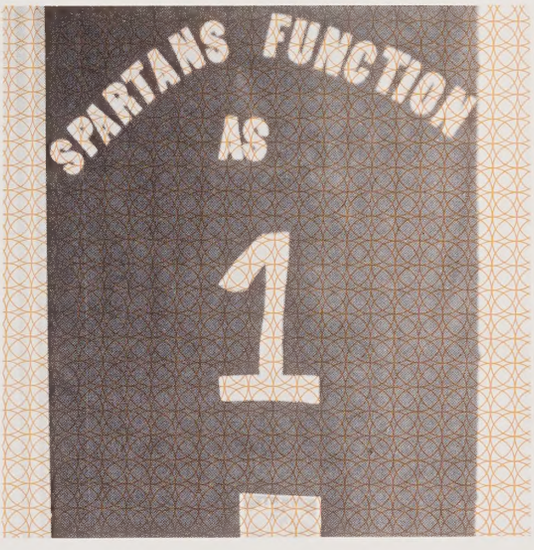
- Mac Davis





ROCK AROUND THE CLO





CK WITH THE SPARTANS

Expressions of amazement, concentration and glee
Made by a face for us to see.
In every situation you'll always find
On a person's face, what is on their mind.

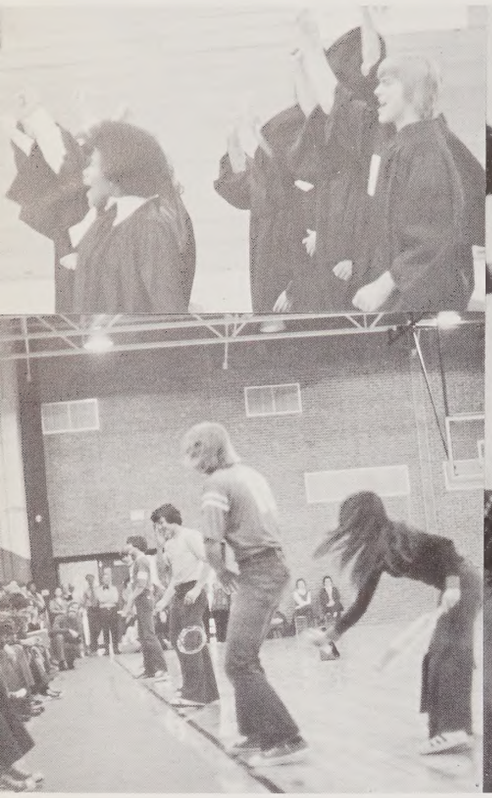
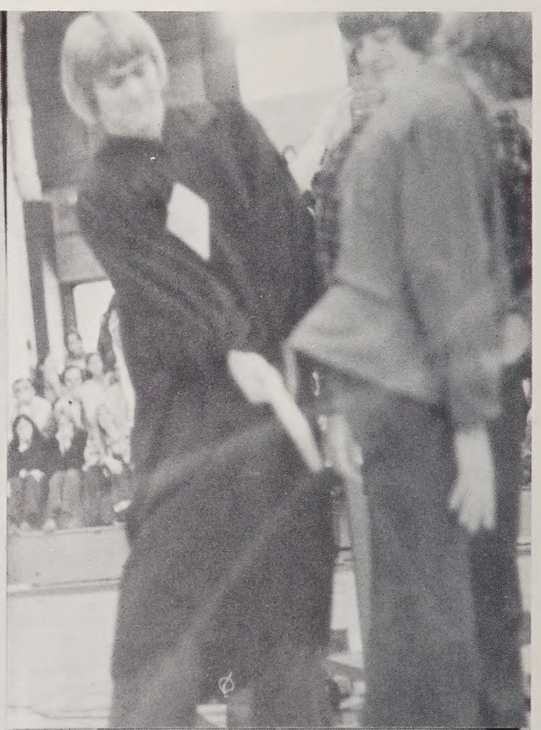
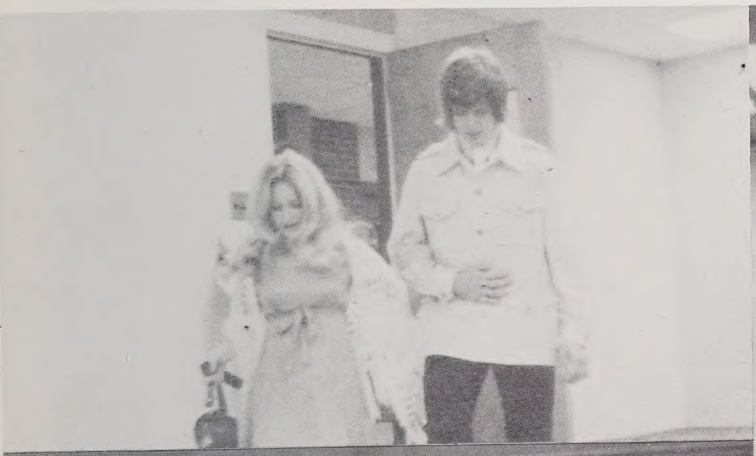
BABY YOU AIN'T

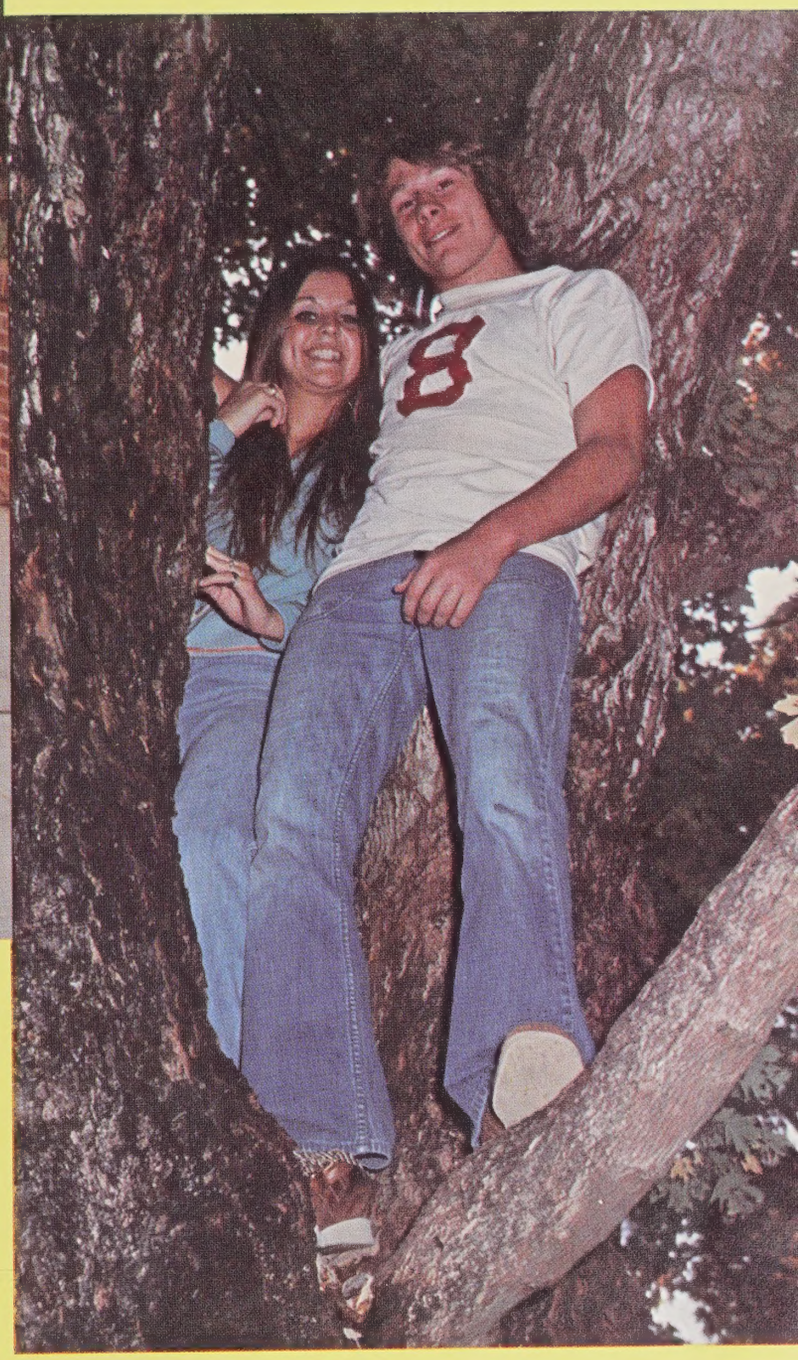




SEEN NOTHING YET



I know I can't express
This feeling of tenderness.
There's so much I want to say,
But the right words
Just don't come my way . . .



I just know when I'm in your embrace
This world is a happy place,
And something happens to me
That's some kind of wonderful!
- Gerry Goffin and Carole King

You entered my life in a casual way,
And saw at a glance what I needed;
There were others who passed me
or met me each day,
But never a one of them heeded.

Perhaps you were thinking of other folks more,
Or chance simply seemed to decree it;
I know there were many such chances before,
But the others - well, they didn't see it.

TOWARD NEW HORIZONS

Once I belonged to some groups.
We called them clubs.
Sometimes we met and talked . . .
Sometimes we had projects or sponsored events . .
I was never president . . .
I was treasurer but
We never had much money.
I guess you could say we didn't do much —
Then again —
We did help some needy people —
Had some school dances —
Heard some good speakers —
Gave some great plays —
Took some exciting trips —
Went to conventions, made speeches, entered contests,
Gaveconcertsboughtfurniturewrotearticlesgavespeeches
Helpedteachersssponseredschoolactivitieslearnedrulesattendedsportsevents.
You know —
I'm really glad
I belong to some of those Spartan Clubs.

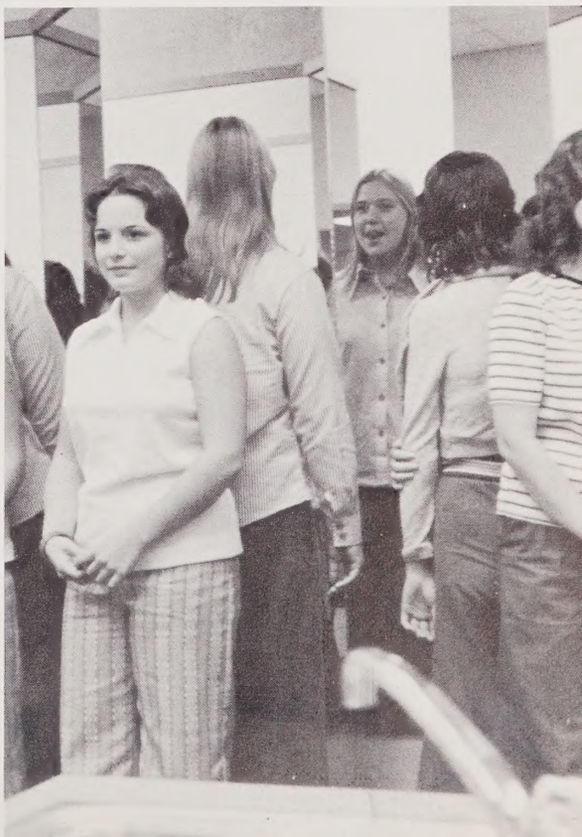
F.H.A. fun begins with new members being initiated.

Home Ec. girls get a good look at themselves in new mirror.



Central's first visit from the Blood Mobile, sponsored by the F.H.A. was a real success. Students and community people gave 95 pints of blood which was the largest amount received by any high school in the county up to that date.

Giving blood required testing of the blood, blood typing, and recording of the blood pressure as well as checking the general condition of the donor. Only a few were turned away by the many volunteers who man the blood mobile.

Central's art classes are filled with many talented artists. Tony Giles puts the final touches on one of his favorite acrylics of a deer.

Freda Grubb is hard at work on a different style of painting which has the modern appeal of neat form and design.

The F.T.A. honored the teachers on Valentine's Day by serving refreshments to them after lunch. The annual room took on a festive air with pretty decorations, good food, and teachers and students sharing a few moments of mutual appreciation.

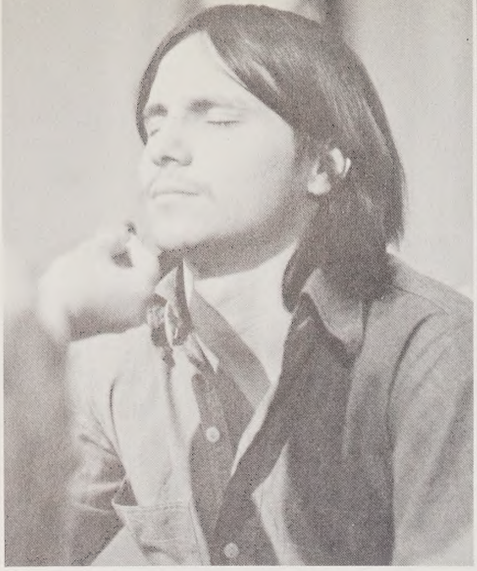
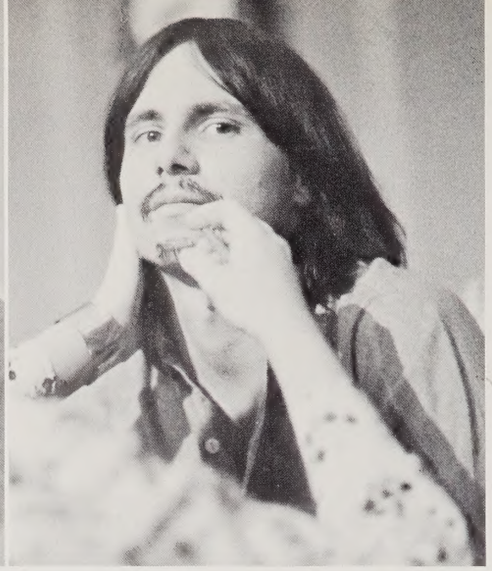
Soloist, Kim Rooks, accompanied by pianist, Lou Ann Smith and Marsha Hughes, is one highlight of the Christmas chorus program.

Students catch the Christmas spirit while listening to the chorus sing favorite Christmas carols.





Make up for a performance is both time consuming and a real test of skill but also very necessary to help the actors get into characterization of their roles. For the play, "Second Time Around", Terry Hodge is made up for his role as a "way-out" cab driver and Annette Sink gets straight make up as the sixteen year old daughter.

TIME AROUND'' AS FALL PRODUCTION

These are scenes from the play, "The Second Time Around". Mrs. Pendergast, Mr. Dockpin, argue with Aunt Serafina. Mrs. Pendergast argues with everyone.

A taxi cab driver enters while Doc Pagan and Carter stare with frustration. In the end, Mrs. Pendergast doesn't want another second time around.

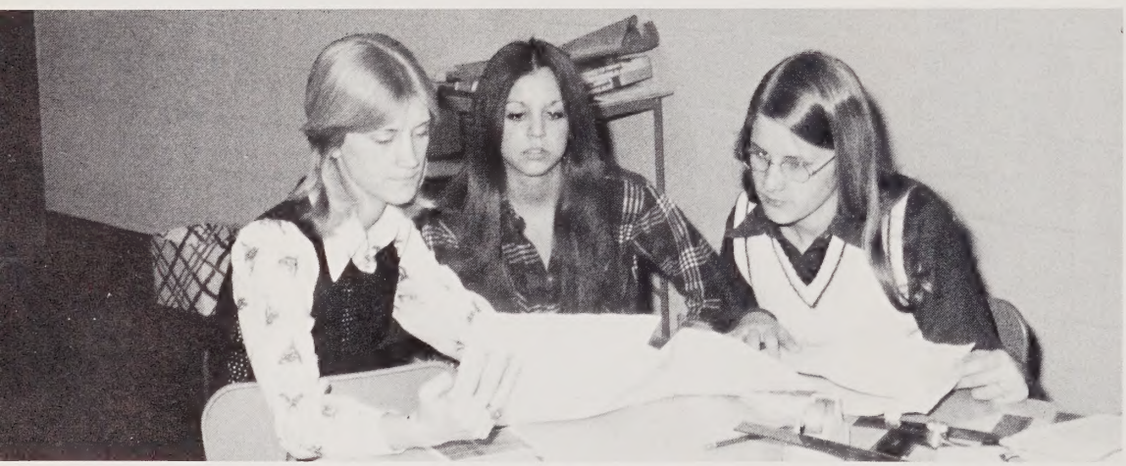
SPARTAN STAFF PRESENTS

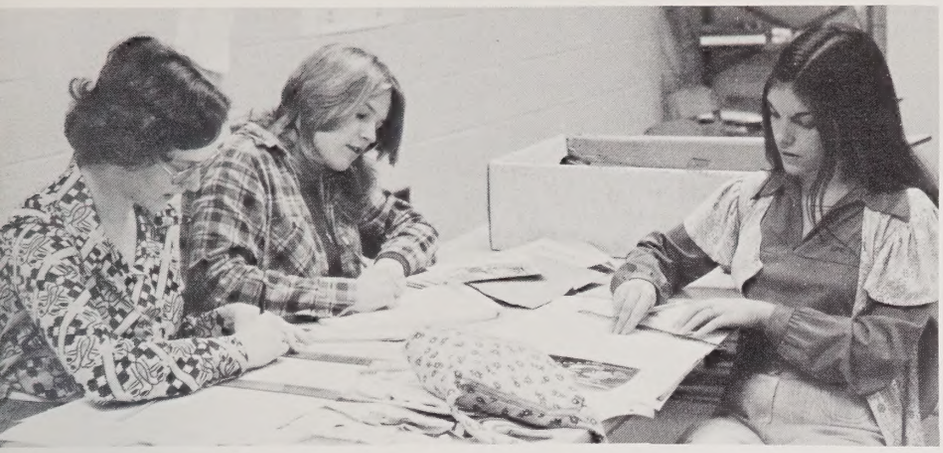


In the manner of year's past the Spartan staff wanted to produce a year book that would show a typical school year that students could remember for many years to come. The idea of "The Spartan Way of Life" showing both school and out of school activities appealed to them. To show the book belonged to all students, each student's last name is on the cover. We hope each student will look at this book and find his way of life in 1974 — 75.

Bonnie Younts; editor, Twinkle Briggs, and Joyce Walker work on the opening pages of the yearbook.

Business Mgr., Robin Gibson and her assistant, Tom McClung finish up the pages of advertisements which are so important to the finances of the yearbook.

"THE SPARTAN WAY OF LIFE"



Beth Swing, Robyn Miller, and Peggy Harrison work together getting the club section of the yearbook ready.

Working together on the student section are Patricia Smith, Paul Hartman, Terry Hall, photographer; and Cromer Beck.

Krista Barger, Jamie Black, Jeff Hedrick master the art of using "the cropper".

Sports editors Scotty Curry, Jack Spears, and Eddie Carrick take a break after finishing up the sports section.

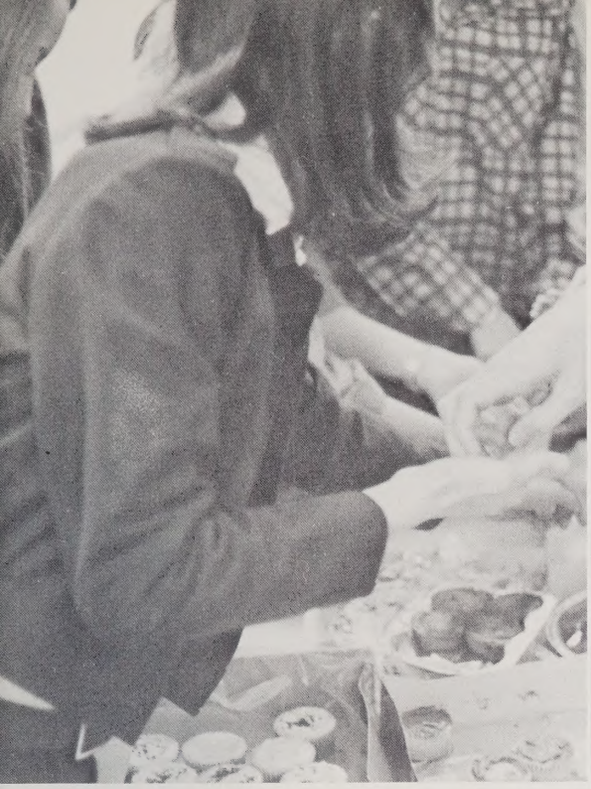
FFA members went to the State Fair in Raleigh and learned a lot about agriculture and horticulture from the exhibits and shows there. This is an annual event to which they always look forward.

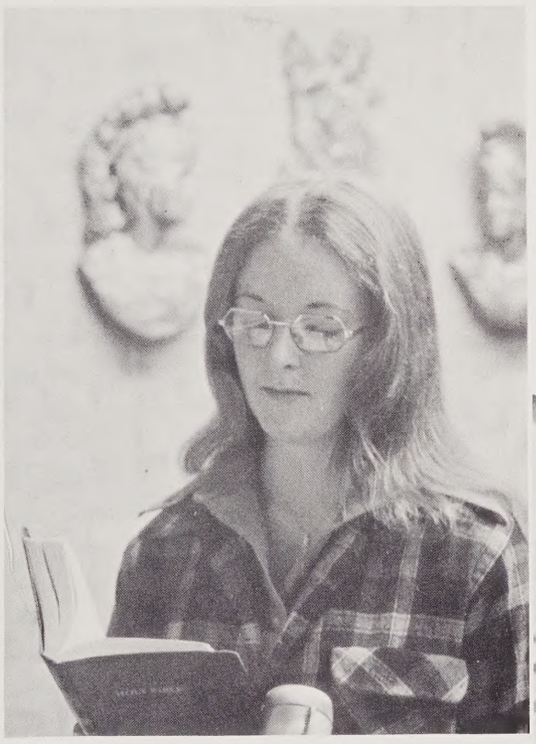
The largest club at Central is the Pep Club. Here some senior members show their enthusiasm and spirit for the Spartans by displaying shakers, balloons, and wearing ribbons.

CLUBS IN

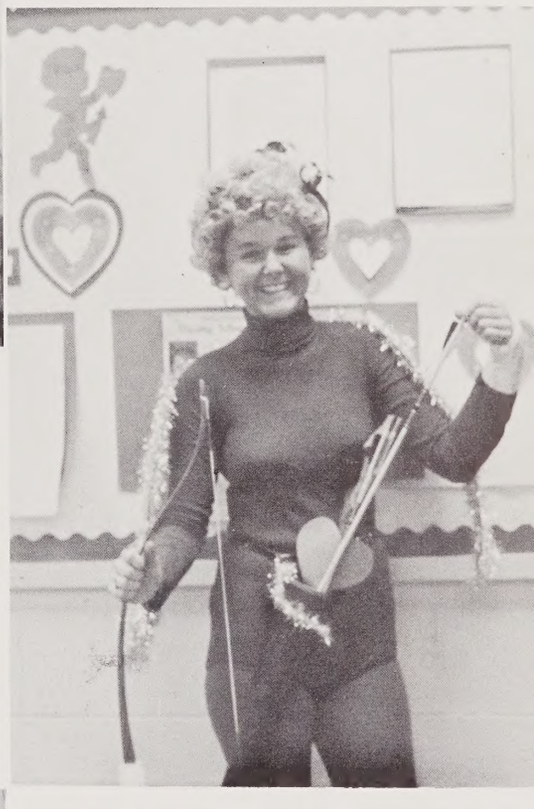
This is typical of the spirit that is generated by Pep Club members. Their support of the teams and school spirit set a fine example for the entire student body.



Jr. Civinettes hold bake sale to raise money for special projects.



Joyce Sheets, Bible Club, reads morning devotions.



Cupid makes his appearance at Central on Valentine's Day.

NCS Committee officers enjoy a look at the furniture their group purchased for the smoking area.

The shouting has ceased.
The cool air soothes
The hurts and bruises
That just now begin to ache.
The athletes tired mind
Begins to fill once more.
Like a slow motion movie
Every play goes slowly by-
The perfect lay up . . .
The embarrassing fumble . . .
The photo finish race . . .
The bat that caught only thin air . . .
The eternity of a three count pin . . .
The pain, the glory . . .
All are there-
But they are worth it
If the final frame reveals
It was a Spartan win.

"WINNING IS NOT EVERYTHING . . . IT IS THE ONLY THING."

Coach Theodore Holmes — Track

Improving by experience every year are Central's athletic advisors. Through many hours of training, hard work, and worrying, Central's athletic program has proven to be one of the most exciting in the conference. The endless job of the coaches is well appreciated as shown by the effort put forth by the athletes. This year's coaching staff managed to put together fine squads in all fields of athletics the school offers.

The first day of any tryout is where the real tolerance of any instructor is shown. One week, five bottles of aspirin, and three cuts later, the final squad is drawn up. Three days later the season starts and offenses haven't been set up, instruments not fully assigned, and suits haven't been given out. The exhausted squads trompunassuredlyinto their first game, but still manage to stick the other team with a defeat. Thanks to the training and sweat put in by out prime leaders, a perfect season has begun, if we can only remember everything the coaches taught us.

After the season ends, we look back to see the defeats we suffered as well as the triumphs we enjoyed. We have all of this, thanks to the backbone of the athletic program, the hardworking, towel slapping, screaming to the top of their voice, mild instructors. The exciting seasons of sports and band are truly appreciated by the fans and athletes. The coaches become better with experience and those few gray hairs that must be inevitable in jobs like these.

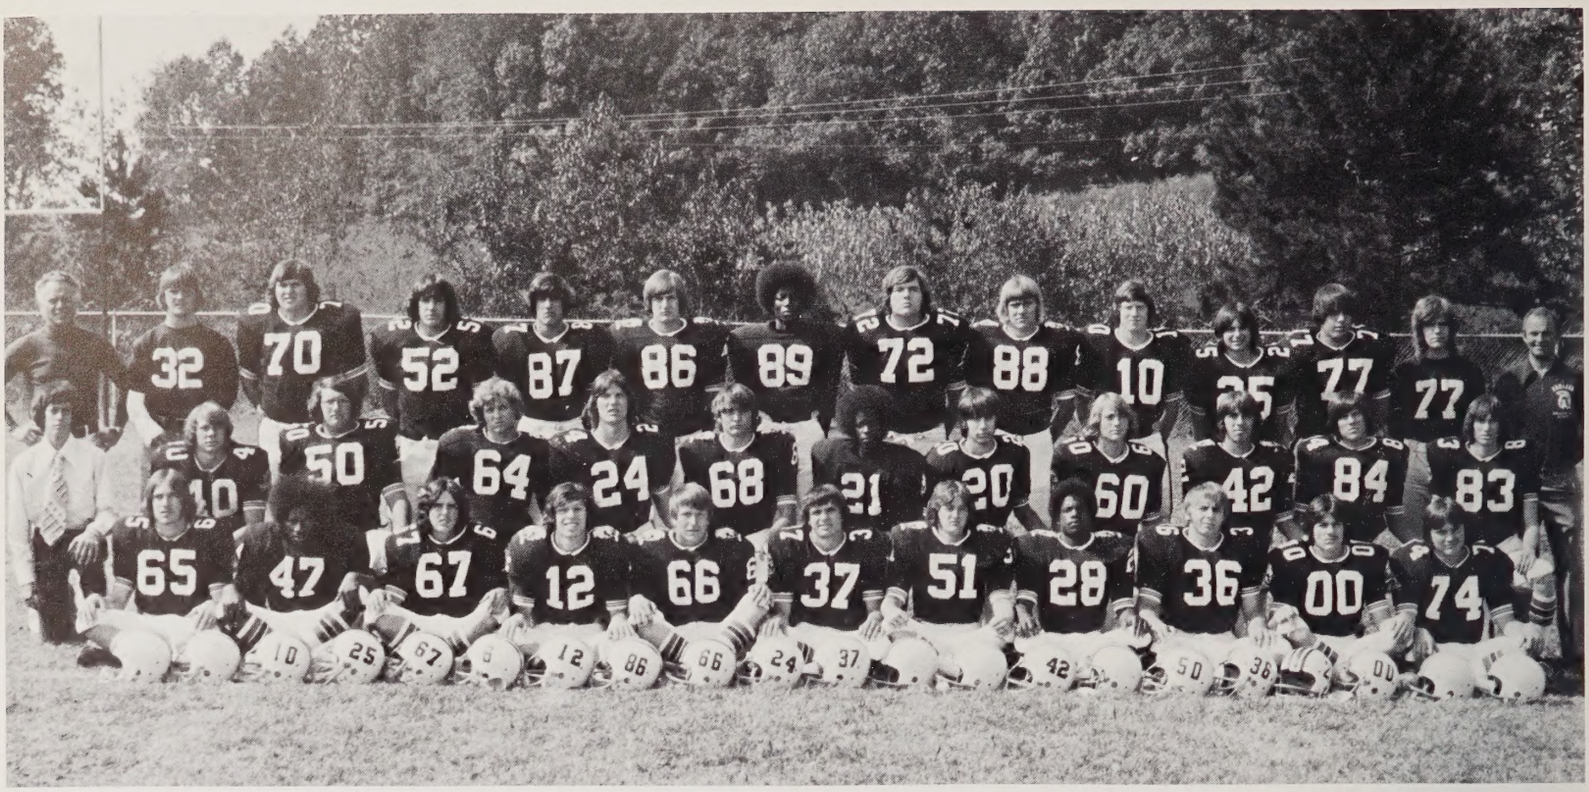
This year the band started out with a new director, Kathy Calloway, from Myrtle Beach. She brought a little bit of the sunshine with her in her smile and during the half-time at football games brought a smile of approval on the faces of the fans. Her jovial spirit has strengthened the band unbelievably. This year the band participated in various parades, showing off their new director, new suits, and new sound.



VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM: Bottom Row — R. Haynes, K. Hargrave, R. Waddle, G. Koontz, G. Hedrick, D. Hedrick, R. Young, S. Corbett, D. Greenwood, B. Blackburn, J. Hines, 2nd Row — T. Hedrick, Mgr; R. A season marked first by optimism, then disappointment, hope, anticipation, and finally respect. It was a season under a new head coach, John Doby, who believes in winning but still puts his players first in mind; a coach who has total confidence in his players, even when the athletes are down on themselves; an open and dedicated man who bases all accomplishments on hard work.

CONFERENCE CHAMPS

Under the leadership of Coaches Jerry Hampton and Ron Johnson, our Junior Varsity Team took conference Honors with an undefeated record. Bowing only to non-conference opponents, the team employed a tough defense, a surprising offense, and a "never say die" attitude to come back many times during the fourth quarter. Playing with extreme team co-operation they reached their peak by defeating 3 A foe West Rowan, a much bigger and stronger team. Such talent should produce good varsity teams in future years.

My teacher told me not to say "ain't".
I said, "Can I?". She said, "You can't".

I wanted to leave class; she said stay.
I said, "Can I read this book?". She said, "Yes, you may".

I came to class late and didn't do my work.
She frowned and scolded and I felt like a jerk.

We played a joke on her and bless me, she laughed.
She had a candy bar for break and she gave me half.

She taught me some things and I told my friend in turn.
She looked pleased I'd shared the things that I'd learned.

What a complex mixture of things she turned out to be,
But I guess it takes that to teach someone as complex as me

FRESHMAN INITIATION WEEK ENDS WITH RAT COURT

The dreaded time for freshmen but much looked forward to by upper classmen is always known as Freshmen Initiation Week. Freshmen were required to carry out orders of sophomores, juniors, and seniors on various days. Those who refused were taken to "rat court" before the entire student body. A selected jury and judge meted out suitable "punishments" for offenders. The offenders were good sports and provided the Spartans with an entertaining hour of speech making, singing, and performing stunts of various types.

Did you ever . . .
Ride into Lexington or sit on your car
Just to see "What's going on"?
Did you ever . . .
Go to Thomasville to see about a job
Or march in the Christmas parade?
Did you ever . . .
Ride through Denton just to see
The stoplight turn from red to green?
Did you ever . . .
Laugh when someone said,
"Are you from Sheet's Bottom or Linwood
or Southmont or Silver Valley, or Holly Grove?
And yet, you were secretly proud you were?
If so, you were in Spartan Country
Where people like the Spartan Way of Life.

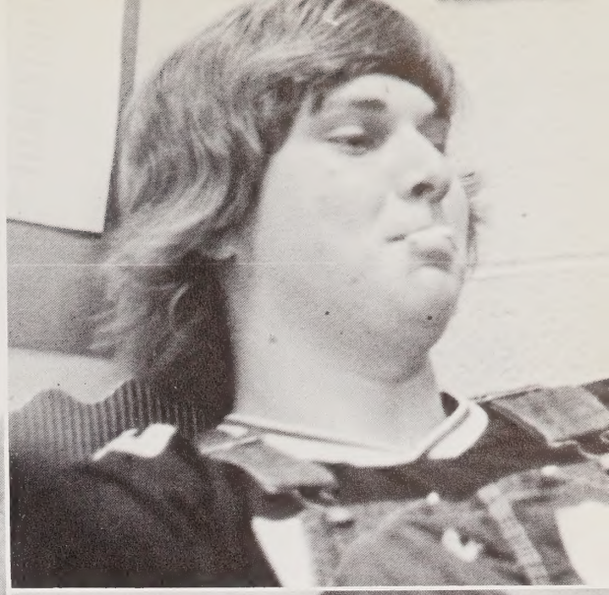
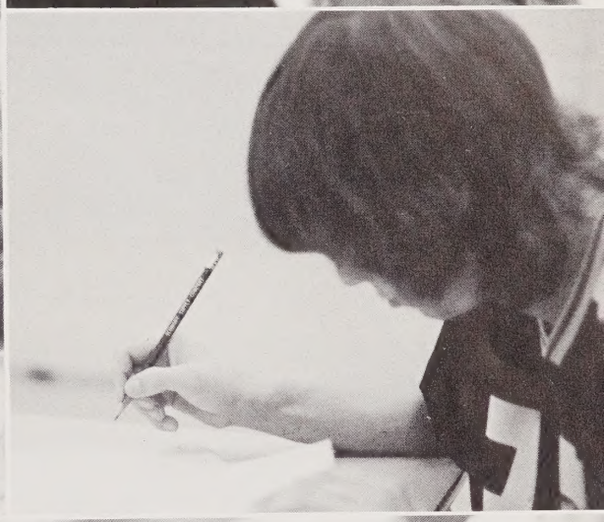
Walton's Grocery





Frayed jeans, tossed hair,
The anticipation of a big game,
The worry of an important test,

Laughing, crying —
Going places,
Or just staying home —

Together with friends
We shared these experiences —
Exciting, disgusting,
Confusing, yet wonderful.

We loved it.
It was our way of life —
Our Spartan Way of Life.
